The Art of Sailing

CRN M/Y AMOR À VIDA

"Sequenze opere tessili numerate" is a fibre art collection by textile designer Ilary Bottini, with textile pieces where the codes of life itself become design. The artist redesigns the DNA helices, transforming them into works of art with a Scandinavian feel.

The new, sculptural Flexor sideboards are designed by Robert Stadler for the living and dining areas. Their unusual feature is the extruded aluminium structure, which enables extreme modularity and great compositional freedom

Inspired by the dictates of sartorial fashion, the DRESS_CODE pieces designed by gumdesign for S-CAB in 2022 are intended to enhance the experience of both indoor and outdoor spaces. Notable among the new outdoor fabrics is the new striped proposal, recalling maritime traditions
